

Medical Relief Alliance (MRA) Website

Thank you for visiting our website where you can learn about our work, beneficiaries, supporters, board and founders. MRA is committed to redressing the economic and health impact of HIV/AIDS in Sub Saharan Africa, beginning with Kenya. As you review our work and consider supporting us, we want to take this opportunity to assure you that we respect your privacy. We strive to achieve and sustain the uttermost practices surrounding privacy and confidentiality. To that extent, we have adapted the policy below.

Our Policy

MRA respects the privacy of individuals and organizations and we make every effort to respect and protect the privacy of our online visitors and donors. We do not share your e-mail address with third parties and in fact, we do not require registration in order to provide information to about us.

MRA does not collect information that can identify individuals and/or organizations unless this is freely provided to us voluntarily and knowingly, such as when you contact us via e-mail or send a donation. When you send us this information, it is used for MRA's internal purposes only and is not shared with anyone outside of our organization. This includes any information you supply when making a donation.

MRA also respects the privacy of our beneficiaries. Inasmuch as we collect personal information that can identify their health and other private details, this information is not shared to other parties without the full knowledge of the beneficiaries. MRA requests our beneficiaries to sign consent allowing us to share their pictures, stories in order to gather resources that benefits them directly or their communities at large.

How Does MRA Use This Information?

If you have provided your personally identifiable information, we may contact you in the future by mail, e-mail or telephone to thank you for your support and to let you know about MRA events, news, volunteer or support opportunities. If you would rather not be contacted for these reasons, please email us at mra@mra-africa.org or write to:

Medical Relief Alliance
244 5th Avenue
Suite B293, New York, NY 10001
mra@mra-africa.org

Is My Personal and Credit Card Information Secure?

Your personal and credit card information is very secure. Online donations are made through NYCharities.org which uses VeriSign to provide you with the utmost security for your most sensitive information. When you make a donation your information is protected with VeriSign's 128-bit encryption technology. NYCharities.org also employs different security techniques to protect your personal information from unauthorized access by users inside and outside of its organization. However, “total security” does not exist anywhere on the cyber space.

How Do We Use Cookies?

Medical Relief Alliance currently does not use cookies and we have no intention of incorporating this practice in the near future. Should this policy change, we’ll make every effort of informing all our web visitors of the same. At such a time, we shall also update this section of our ‘cookie’ policy.

Governing Law

By opting to use Medical Relief Alliance’s website you agree to abide by the terms and conditions of our privacy statement as outlined above. If you do not accept these conditions, please refrain from using this website and contact us either via mail, telephone or in person.

Also, by using this website you agree that usage and any related disputes shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of New York. Any dispute relating to this agreement shall be resolved solely in the state and federal courts located in New York, New York.

Medical Relief Alliance may change these terms and conditions from time to time for any reason.

Thank you for visiting us online and please contact us at mra@mra-africa.org should you have additional questions or comments our website or privacy statement.